

NABH PROFILE

Quality of health care and the initiatives to address the crucial factors provided by the health care delivery system become the world-wide phenomena. Many countries are exploring various means to methods to improve the quality of health care services. In India, the quality of services provided to the population by both public and private sectors is questionable.

NABH accreditation system is one of the methods for commitment to quality enhancement throughout the whole of the health care system in India. It involves all professional and service groups to ensure that high quality in health care is achieved, while minimizing the inherent risks associated with modern health care delivery.

The objective of NABH accreditation is on continuous improvement in the organizational and clinical performance of health services, not just the achievement of a certificate or award or merely assuring compliance with minimum acceptable standards.
